3 APPLICATIONS:

Christ is everything and so musicians are nothing!

Worshippers are everything and so musicians are nothing!, and therefore

Godly, humble, gifted musicians (harpists v8!) are critical to the exaltation of Christ and the serving of the saints.

SINGING WITH JOY THROUGH LIFE

THE CALL TO SING – PSALM 66

PAUL MALLARD

TALK 1: PSALM 66

Call to sing (1–4)

The living God who acts - singing in response to the salvation of God (5–7)

The faithful God who tests - singing in times of trial and sorrow (8–15)

The holy God who hears - singing from hearts that are right with God and trusting Him (16–20)

SINGING WITH JOY THROUGH LIFE

WHY DO WE SING?

TALK 2: WHY DO WE SING?

We were created to sing

We are commanded to sing

Singing is a dominant theme in the Bible and the history of the Church

Singing celebrates our Salvation

Singing cements great truths in our lives

Singing shapes our lives and is one means God uses to make us holy

Singing prepares us for the challenges of life - battles and trials

Singing expresses our fellowship and encourages our brothers and sisters

Singing is a witness to a lost world

Singing prepares for heaven

SESSION LEADERS

PAUL MALLARD

Paul is currently minister at Widcombe Baptist church in Bath. He is married to Edrie and they have 4 children and 5 grandchildren. For many years he and Edrie have dealt with her neurological degenerative disease, which has led to his writing of a few books including "invest your suffering" and "invest your disappointments" (available on the bookstall today.) He fully recognises the issues we can have as musicians in encouraging our congregations to keep singing truth in all situations of life.

ADRIAN REYNOLDS

Adrian is currently working as the Associate National Director of the FIEC. He is a great musician and feels very strongly about how singing good theology helps to cement truth in our hearts.

He is married to Celia and they have 3 daughters together.

SEMINAR LEADERS

MATT DENNIS

Matt runs Resound: a small business providing a range of professional audio services and often working with local churches and Christian organisations across the UK. Until recently, he served as the Music Minister at Christ Church Fulwood in Sheffield, where he remains a part of the church family with his wife, Stephi.

ANDY FENTON

Andy is Associate Minister at Christ Church Kensington in London, and splits his time between there and Music Ministry, where he serves as team leader. He has lead music at various conferences and is involved with occasional lecturing at Cornhill London and Belfast, and Oakhill College. He is married to Sarah and they have two sons.

BEN SLEE

Ben is Music Director at Christ Church Mayfair in London. He is married to Sarah and they have one daughter Abi. Ben loves to write songs and has played at Word Alive. Ben works with the Music Ministry team with Apprentice training, and the Dwell richly course.

DANIEL JOHNSON

Daniel is head of worship studies at Nexus ICU, and is also studying for his PhD studying the hymns of Isaac Watts. He, his wife Ros, and their 4 children are part of Redeemer Church in Nottingham, and live with Daniel's ever growing collection of guitars and banjos, and numerous chickens.

COLIN WEBSTER

Colin is one of the pastors and music leaders at Cornerstone Church Nottingham. He's been involved in conference such as Keswick and Word Alive, and writes songs along with Phil Moore. He is married to Vicki and they have two teenage boys.

PHIL MOORE

Phil leads the youth and music ministries at Cornerstone church Nottingham. He writes songs and plays at conferences such as Keswick and Word Alive along with Colin. He is married to Gill and they have two children.

MICHAEL J TINKER

Michael is a professional musician based in the beautiful Peak District. Husband to Jo and father to three lively children he splits his time between writing, recording, touring his family show and going into over 40 schools taking Christian assemblies.
